WORSHIP SERVICE IS ON ZOOM! The link is here.

Today we're continuing our worship series looking at healthy relationships. Jesus called his followers to love each other, but what does that look like?

Through the end of February, our worship services will focus on developing and maintaining healthy relationships with God and others. Pastors KyongJung and Ken will alternate bringing the sermon each week. This Sunday Wendy, Gretta, and Ken will lead the service, where from John 1.1-17 we'll consider the implications of God expressing his love for us in Jesus, who came to us "... full of grace and truth" (Jn 1.14). After worship the topic of the day will be discussed more informally (this will be the Faith Formation Discussion time) on the same zoom link as the service. Everyone is encouraged to participate! This week's discussion will begin with these questions:

1. How have you experienced or witnessed truth not bringing blessing? What had you hoped truth might achieve in that case? Why did it not achieve the goal? What could have made it more redemptive or constructive?
2. How have you experienced or witnessed grace being ineffective? What had you hoped grace might achieve in that case? Why did it not achieve the goal? What could have made it more redemptive or constructive?
3. Why is it so hard for us to combine grace and truth? What might be some helpful ways for us, either as individuals or as a church, to combine them more effectively?
4. Is the Holy Spirit calling you to do anything different about the way you apply grace or truth from now on? If so, what?
